The whole manor of Walles is held of the bishop of Worcester by service of a moiety of a knight s fee.

Writ of plenius certiorari, to William Trussel, escheator, 13 July, 1 Edward III. Whereas by an inquisition taken by Thomas de Harpeden, late escheator in the counties of Wilts, Southampton, Oxford, Berks, Bedford and Buckingham, it was found that John Gyffard of Brymmesfeld, deceased, who held of the late king in chief, was seised in fee of the manor of Ascheton, and that the said manor is held of the heirs of William Mautravers by fealty for all service, and nevertheless on behalf of John Lestraunge and James Daudele, a minor in the king's wardship, it has been shown to the king that one John Mautravers by his charter granted the said manor and the advowson of the church of St. Peter, Chodeford, to Elias Giffard, sometime deceased, in free marriage with Alice, sister of the same John Mautravers, and that the said John Giffard held by the form of the said grant on the day he died the said manor and advowson as kinsman and heir of the said Elias and Alice, and that the same John Lestraunge and James Daudele are next heirs of the said John Giffard of the manor and advowson.

WILTS. Inq. 16 September, 1 Edward III.

The manor with the advowson of the church of St. Peter, Codeford, was granted by John Mautravers to Elias Giffard in free marriage with his sister Alice to hold to them and the heirs of their bodies of the aforesaid John Mautravers and his heirs by service of a knight's fee; and the said John Giffard held the said manor and advowson on the day he died according to the form of that grant.

John Lestraunge and James Daudele are his next heirs of the said manor according to the form of the said grant.

Writ to Simon de Bereford, escheator, 22 December, 1 Edward III. Whereas the king has granted to John Mautravers, the younger, the wardship of the lands and tenements late of John Giffard of Brymmesfeld, deceased, who held of the late king in chief, to hold so long as the same should remain in the king's hand rendering the extent thereof at the exchequer every year, and the said John Mautravers has informed the king that John Giffard died seised of the manors of Codeford, Dene and Asshton, co. Whereas the late king, 7 September, 12 Edward II, had out of the two-third parts of the lands and tenements late of Theobald de Verdoun, who held of the said king in chief, then in his hands, assigned to Thomas de Furnivall, de Furnyvall or de Fournivall, the younger, and Joan his wife, the eldest of the daughters and one of the heirs of the said Theobald, who had completed her age, the castle and manor of Alveton, with its members of Bredeleye, Farlegh, Coton, Wotton, Denston, Staunton, Stromgeshulle, Buckenhale, Fenton and Barderdeleye, which were extended at 29*l.* 11*s.* 4*d.* yearly, to hold as the pourparty of the said Joan of the said two parts, and having taken fealty of the said Thomas, had commanded the said pourparty to be delivered to them, as by the rolls of the chancery appears; and whereas Bartholomew de Burghessh, who took to wife Elizabeth, daughter of the said Theobald, and William le Blount, who took to wife Margery, the third daughter of the same Theobald, and the said Elizabeth and Margery, who have proved their ages, have brought suit that the reasonable pourparties of the said Elizabeth and Margery out of the said lands and tenements late of the said Theobald, which were taken into the hand of the late King Edward II, should be assigned to them, asserting that in the said castle and manor of Alveton with its members there are more than 60*l.* of yearly rent and divers lands and tenements, of which no mention is made in the extent or assignment; wherefore they have prayed the king to resume into his hand the said castle, manor and hamlets and all other lands and tenements of the said Theobald, which upon his death were taken into the hand of the late King Edward [II], and thus are in the present king's hand, and to cause them to be extended according to their true value, and reasonable pourparties to be made in three equal parts, and assigned and delivered to the said Joan, Elizabeth and Margery:—the king commands the sheriff to warn the said Thomas and Joan to be in the king's chancery on the morrow of Holy Trinity, which day the king has also given to the said Bartholomew and Elizabeth and William and Margery to show cause why the said castle, manor and hamlets should not be resumed into the king's hand and be again extended, and to receive judgment.

The said William, the elder, held by knight's service of the heir of William de Vescy, deceased, who held in chief of King Edward II; which heir was lately within age, and in the wardship of the said king.

Richard le Saucer, aged 40 years, says that the said William was born at York, in Conyngestrete, on the eve of the Invention of the Holy Cross, 35 Edward I, and was baptized in the church of St. Martin in Conyngestrete in the said city, and William de Sothill and William Fairfax lifted the said William from the sacred font, and he was 21 years of age on the eve of the Invention of the Holy Cross last past; and this he knows because the same King Edward died on the feast of St. Thomas of Canterbury next after the birth of the said William.

William de N . . . . . ., aged 52 years, says the like, and knows it because he had a daughter Helen born in the same year.

William Odeson, aged 50 years, says the like, and knows it because in the same month he married Alice his wife.

Peter de Eseby, aged 41 years, says the like, and knows it because in the same year he married Isabel his wife, who still survives.

Roger le Mareschal, aged 60 years, says the like, and knows it because he was then in the retinue (comitiva) of Walter de Langeton, bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, and had a certain palfrey of the bishop in his charge (in marescalcia) in the same week in which the said William was born.

John le Lumynour, aged 64 years, says the like, and knows it because, within fifteen days after the birth of the said William, he went to Canterbury on pilgrimage.

William de Bossale, aged 56 years, says the like, and knows it because he had a son named Robert, who was born on the feast of St. Paul next after the birth of the said William de Stoppeham; and he will be 21 years of age [at the said feast] next to come.

171. Robert de la Legh, brother and heir of John de la Legh, deceased.

Writ to the escheator to take the proof of age of the said Robert, 2 April, 2 Edward III.

DURHAM. Proof of age, 12 April, 2 Edward III.

The said John held of Sir Henry de Percy, who was lately within age and in the wardship of King Edward II.

John de Aleynscheles, aged 55 years and more, says that the said Robert was born 2 November, 34 Edward I, at 'le Pavylion' by Suthwermuth, and was baptized in the church of the said town of Wermuth, and Robert de Hilton and William de Suthewik lifted him from the sacred font, and he was 24 years of age on 2 November last past. Asked how he knows this, he says that on the same day he had a son born, named William, who was baptized in the same church, and who has completed the age of 24 years.

Walter de Ludewrth, aged 33 years, says as the said John; and this he knows because a certain Walter Man had a daughter born, named Alice, and took the said Walter [de Ludewrth] with him to the aforesaid church of Wermuth, and caused him, then aged nine years, to lift the said daughter from the sacred font, on the same 2nd of November, and then and there he saw the aforesaid Robert baptized before the said Alice, whereby a long delay occurred, for which cause she wept, and he knows by the age of the said Alice, who survives, that the aforesaid Robert has completed the age of 24 years, as they have often computed among themselves.

John de Hewrth, aged 50 years, says the like, and knows it because on the same 2nd of November his sister Iseult died, whose death is inserted in the calendar (kalendario) of the church of Suthwermuth, and because on the 2nd of November 24 years will have elapsed. He then saw the said Robert baptized with great solemnity, the priest sprinkling the holy water excessively (superflue) in his face and in his eyes from the sacred font, wherefore he was angry for a long time with the aforesaid priest; and therefore he well knows that the said Robert has completed the age of 24 years.

William de Sancto Paulo, aged 50 years and more, says the like, and knows it because he had a daughter born on the same 2nd of November, who was on the said day last past aged 24 years.

Adam de Elyngeham, aged 48 years, says the like, and knows it because William de Suthewik, his beloved neighbour, begged him to eat with him on the same 2nd of November, where he remained the whole of that day, and accompanied him to the church of Suthwermuth, where he saw the said Robert baptized and lifted [from the sacred font] by Robert de Hilton and the said William de Suthewik, now twenty-four years ago.

Roger de Weston, aged 60 years, says that the aforesaid Robert is aged 24, because on the morrow of All Saints, 24 years ago, he [Roger] set out for the fair of Derlington, and stayed the night at 'le Pavilon' aforesaid, on which day he found the mother of the said Robert lying in her bed on account of the birth of the said Robert; and at that time he had a certain bond of Peter de Morpath, a horsedealer, for 6 marks, for a horse sold to him there, and now, as appears by the date of the writing, 24 years have elapsed.

Walter de Dichand, aged 54 years, says that, on the 3rd of November, he was giving evidence at Sunderland on the condition of the will of Richard de Wermuth of the said parish of Suthwermuth, now 24 years ago. He was 30 years old on that day, when a certain Sir Laurence de Akley, then chaplain of the parish church of Wermuth aforesaid, was present, having been summoned (vocatus), and said that he had baptized a certain beautiful little male child of Roger de la Leygh, named Catherine (sic), on the day the aforesaid Robert [was baptized]. The same Walter Dychand, as he said, gave and sent two quarters of corn on the same 3rd of November, and was at the feast of the purification of the mother of the said Robert. Whence he knows by the date of the will that the said Robert is 24 years of age.

John de Midilton, aged 52 years, says that on the morrow of All Saints, the 2nd of November last, 24 years had elapsed since a certain John Makman was found slain in the field of Suthwermuth, at the inquest on whom he was present, and he has a copy of the same; on which day he was eating with John de la Leygh, brother of the aforesaid Robert, whose heir the aforesaid Robert is, in the house of the father and mother of the said John, and on the same day the said Robert was baptized, and he gave 18*d.* to the same little brother of the said John lying in his cradle.

William de Ellewik, aged 57 years, agrees in all things with the aforesaid first witness John; and he knows this because Thomas his father died on the aforesaid 2nd of November, 34 Edward I, whose death is testified in writings, so that on the same 2nd of November last past he well knows that 24 years had fully elapsed.

Hugh Stamp, of Belforth, aged 50 years and more, agrees and knows it because, on the same 2nd of November, Agnes his daughter was born, and was baptized, and died, now 24 years ago; and on the same day and year, he was enfeoffed by the charter of Robert Scholl of a messuage in the town of Bellefurth.

Alexander de Preston, aged 45 years, agrees, and knows it because he rendered his account then in the church of Suthwermuth before Master Richard de Morpath, then official of [the diocese of] Durham (Offic' Dunelm'), when the said Robert was baptized on the day and year aforesaid, as is shown by the date of his account, whence he knows surely (fideliter) that the said Robert is 24 years of age.

Adam de Doxforth, aged 56 years and more, says that at the feast of St. Martin in the winter, 34 Edward I, in which year the said Robert was born, on the morrow of All Saints, viz.—the 2nd of November, then next preceding, he gave all his land which he had in the town of Sunderland, of the parish of Suthwermuth, to Reginald his son, and to the heirs of his body; who lived but one year after that enfeoffment. So he knows by inspection of the charter, and by the death of the said Reginald, that the aforesaid Robert de la Leygh has completed the age of 24 years.

172. Richard Heriz, son and heir of Richard Heriz, deceased, who held of King Edward II, in chief.

John de Brokestouwe, aged 50 years and more, says that on the morrow of St. Leonard, 1 Edward II, the said Richard was born at Stapelford, co. Derby, in the manor [-house] of the said town, in the large stone chamber by the hall, and was baptized in St. Helen's church there, and that Sir Richard, then prior of Newstead (de Novo Loco) in Shirewode, and William de Cobbeleye, then chaplain of the parish, lifted him from the sacred font; and, on the morrow of St. Leonard last, the aforesaid Richard was 21 years of age; and this he knows because King Edward II. was crowned at Westminster, on Sunday next after the Purification next before the aforesaid feast of St. Leonard.

Geoffrey de Bronnesle, aged 48 years, says the like, and knows it because, on Sunday next after the Purification, 1 Edward II, before the said feast of St. Leonard, the said king married Isabella, queen of England, at Westminster; and he (Geoffrey?) passed the night before the celebration of the said nuptials at the Tower of London.

Roger de Mamcestre, aged 50 years and more, says the like, and knows it because, on Saturday next after St. Mark in the same year, Roger Hare slew Robert Daubene in Stapelford, and on Saturday next before St. Mark last 21 years will have elapsed.

John de Burton, aged 42 years, says the like, and knows it because, on Wednesday next before St. Nicholas, 1 Edward II, he left the school of Nottingham by the advice of Thomas de Stapelford, rector of the church of Trouwell, and became clerk with the said Thomas from the aforesaid day to the same day seven years after, on which day he married Joan, daughter of Nicholas de Sandiacre, with whom he has lived now for 14 years.

John de Strelle, aged 60 years, agrees, and knows it because at that time he was bailiff with Robert de Strelleye, knight, of the manor of Schippele, co. Derby, and on Thursday next before St. Edmund, the King and Martyr, 1 Edward II, there came robbers by night to the said manor, and made assault, and, whilst he was defending the manor, one of the robbers struck him through the middle of the arm with an arrow.

William Estwheit, aged 40 years, agrees with the said William Torcard, and knows it because, on the day after St. Andrew, 1 Edward II, he had a daughter, named Alice, espoused to Robert de Bilburgh; and at the feast of St. Andrew last 21 years had elapsed.

Geoffrey son of Richard, aged 50 years, agrees with the said William Estwhayt, and knows it because, on the day on which the said Richard Heriz was born, viz.—on the morrow of St. Leonard, 1 Edward II, the said Geoffrey had a son, named Richard, who on the said day celebrated his first mass in the parish church of Stapelford.

John Gerveys, of Chylewelle, aged 40 years, agrees with Geoffrey son of Richard, and knows it because, on the third day after the birth of the said Richard, viz.—on the fourth day after St. Leonard, 1 Edward II, Cecily his wife, was engaged (attachiata) for the nourishment of the aforesaid Richard, and stayed for three days as his nurse, but the stay did not please her, for on the fourth day she withdrew from her service, and returned home to her husband.

Robert son of Thomas of Bramcote, aged 52 years, agrees with the said John, and knows it because, on the Sunday before St. Leonard, 1 Edward II, Roger his firstborn son was born, and on Sunday before the said feast last past the said Roger was 21 years of age.

Stephen Paule, aged 43 years, agrees with the said Robert, and knows it because, on the morrow of St. Leonard, 1 Edward II, he received the office of bailiff of the honour of Peverell, by the demise of Richard Martel, and, by the date of his commission, he has knowledge of the age of the said Richard.

John de Mounteneye, being warned to be present at the taking of this proof, did not appear, nor did any one on his behalf, to shew cause why the said lands and tenements should not be restored to the aforesaid Richard Heriz, as of full age.

Robert de Harslade, aged 60 years and more, says that the said John is 21 years of age and more. Asked how he knows this, he says that the said [John] was born at Kyngeston, in the Isle of Wight, on Tuesday, the feast of the Decollation of St. John the Baptist, 34 Edward I. Asked further how he knows this, he says that he was in the church of St. Peter, Shorewelle, to hear mass, at the time when Robert Urry, John le Martre, and Joan the wife of Richard le Palmere, lifted the said John de Kyngeston from the sacred font.

Richard de Hoghton, aged 50 years and more, says the said John is 21 years of age and more; and this he knows because he was in the hall of the aforesaid Jordan in Kyngeston, and talked with him, when the aforesaid Jordan said that on that day he had had a son born named John.

Walter Noreys, aged 48 years and more, says the like, and knows it because Jordan de Kyngeston, knight, father of the said John, asked him to the purification of his wife, after [the birth of] her firstborn son, the said John; and further he had a brother John, who died and was buried at Karesbrouk on the morrow of the birth of the aforesaid John de Kyngeston.

Robert Urry, aged 60 years and more, says that John de Kyngeston is of full age, for he lifted him from the sacred font on Tuesday, the feast of the Decollation of St. John the Baptist, 34 Edward I, in the church of St. Peter, Shorewelle, at the first hour of the day.

177. Master Rees ap Howel, clerk.

Writ of certiorari, 9 June, 2 Edward III.

On the complaint of Philip ap Howel, clerk, and Philip de Brenlees, that whereas King Edward II by his letters patent gave licence to Master Rees ap Howel, clerk, now deceased, to enfeoff William ap Rees of his manor of Talgarth in Wales, which was held of the said king in chief, to hold to the said William and his heirs by the accustomed services; and the said king granted to the same William that, when he was seised of the manor, he might give it to Philip ap Howel, and to the said Rees and Philip de Brenlees, to hold to them and the heirs of the body of the said Philip de Brenlees by the said services; and the said Rees, by virtue of the above licence, enfeoffed the said William, who afterwards granted the said manor to the said Rees, Philip and Philip, and they were thereof jointly seised, until the death of the said Rees; the escheator, pretending that the said Rees was the only tenant, then took the manor into the king's hand, and still detains it from the said Philip and Philip.

Wales [Brecon]. Inq. Monday the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula, 2 Edward III.

Talgarth alias Dalgarth. C. Edw. III. File 14. (3.)

178. William de Dene.

Writ of plenius certiorari to John de Annesle and Robert de Aston, 28 March, 2 Edward III.

Whereas by an inquisition made by the late escheator it was found that William de Dene held on the day he died certain lands and tenements in Great Dene, co. Gloucester, by service of 10*s.* to be paid to the king by the hands of the constable of the castle of St. Briavel, and certain lands and tenements in Little Dene, by service of 6*d.* to be paid yearly at the king's exchequer; and that the said William held no other lands or tenements of the king in chief, by which the wardship &c. ought to pertain to the king, but that he held the manor of Lassebergh, in the same county, of Hugh le Despenser, late earl of Winchester, by service of a knight's fee; and that Joan and Isabel his daughters are his next heirs, Joan being 15 years of age, and Isabel 11 years; and it is now shewn to the king on behalf of Robert de Goldhull that the said Hugh, after the death of the said William in 12 Edward II, entered upon the said manor in the name of wardship, and granted it to one Geoffrey de Weston, to hold until the lawful age of the aforesaid heirs; and the said Geoffrey demised the same to the said Robert, to hold as aforesaid; and thus both the said Geoffrey and Robert were seised of it, until, by the forfeiture of the said Hugh, the manor was taken into the king's hand, and there is still detained. For which the said Robert prays remedy.

Writ of venire facias, to the sheriff of Gloucester, in accordance with the foregoing, 28 March, 2 Edward III.

GLOUCESTER. Inq. Monday next before St. George, 2 Edward III.

Lassebergh. Hugh le Despenser, the elder, entered upon the manor in 13 Edward II, after the death of William de Dene, in the name of wardship because of the minority of Joan and Isabel, daughters and heirs of the said William; and on 10 May in the same year, the said Hugh demised the said manor to Geoffrey de Westone, to hold until the lawful age of the aforesaid heirs; and thus the said Geoffrey was seised of the manor from the said 10 May until Sunday the feast of St. Clement the Pope, 19 Edward II, on which day the said Geoffrey demised the manor to Robert de Goldhulle, to hold as above; who was seised thereof from the said Sunday to 22 July, 1 Edward III, when the king's escheator took the said manor into the king's hand, and ejected the said Robert, supposing that the manor was forfeited by the forfeiture of the said Hugh, who then held nothing there, and it is still in the king's hand. William de Dene held the manor of the said Hugh le Despenser, the elder, in chief, as of the manor of Somerforde Kaynes, by service of a knight's fee.

Writ of certiorari, 29 March, 2 Edward III. (defaced.)

Whereas lately on the petition of the said George suggesting that he, as lord of the manors of Meriet and Great Lopene, co. Somerset, and all his ancestors, lords of those manors, had fairs and markets therein time out of mind, until the death of John de Meriet, his grandfather, who held of King Edward I, in chief, after whose death the aforesaid manors, by reason of the minority of John his son and heir, were taken into the said king's hand and there remained until the lawful age of the said heir, when they were restored; but nevertheless, those fairs and markets were kept (detinebantur) from the said John son of John, and from that time until now have been kept alike from the said John and the said George; the present king appointed commissioners to enquire into the truth of the foregoing, and by inquisition it was found that the said John the grandfather and his ancestors had fairs as above-said, viz.—a fair at Meriet beginning on Friday next before the Ascension, and lasting till the morrow of the said feast, and another fair at Lopene beginning on Wednesday next before Whitsunday, and lasting till the morrow of Holy Trinity; and that on the restitution of the said manors the said fairs remained in the said king's hand through lack of suit of the said John, and they are still there, through lack of suit of the said George, and in no other manner; and that the fair of Meriet is worth 12*d.* yearly, and the fair of Great Lopene 26*s.* 8*d.* yearly.

SOMERSET. Inq. 25 April, 2 Edward III. (defaced.)

To the same effect as in the inquisition above recited, but the jurors add that neither John de Meriet nor his ancestors held any markets in the aforesaid towns at any time. John, the father of the said George, was in the wardship of King Edward I for eighteen years and then was seised of the said manors, but not of the fairs for lack of counsel, and lived no long time, and after his death the said George was in the wardship of King Edward II for sixteen years.

Writ of dedimus potestatem to the escheator to take the fealty of Isabel, late the wife of the said George, the king having understood by inquisition made that the said George and Isabel held jointly 27 messuages, lands and rent (extent given), in Meriet for life, by fine levied in the late king's court, which are held of the king in chief by service of a knight's fee, and that John, son of the said George, aged 7 weeks, is his next heir, 10 January, 2 Edward III.

Endorsed by the escheator:—"I have taken the fealty of Isabel, late the wife of George de Meriet, according to the tenor of this writ."

LINCOLN. Assignment of dower to the said Isabel, 22 February, 3 Edward III. (defective and defaced.)

On receiving the oath of the said Isabel that she would not marry without the king's licence, there were assigned to her, firstly, the high chamber in the [capital] messuage, situated across the hall on the east side, and thence from the western corner of the said chamber towards the hall as far as the small stable, with the said stable . . . . . towards the east, with all the houses situated in the said part, and with a certain part of the grange towards the east, and the court of the same, as far as the bound there fixed by common assent, and with . . . . . all profits of the same from a certain postern on the east side of the aforesaid chamber, situate between the chamber and the kitchen, as far as the drawbridge of the manor, with a certain motte (mota) . . . . . on the east side, with free ingress and egress for all her necessary causes by the middle of the gate beyond the aforesaid drawbridge . . . . . for a third part of the whole capital messuage. There were also assigned to her two small fishponds (described); . . . . . , with a third part of a certain house at le Fenhouses, called le Skipnegarth, on the north side . . . . . ; five tofts, of which one lies on the north side of the town of Castelcarleton; divers parcels of arable land (field names given), including . . . . . of land of the parson of the church of Great Carleton, for a third part of 435½*a.* 1*r.*; divers parcels of meadow (field names given), for a third part of 529½*a.*; divers parcels of several pasture (field names given), for a third part of 102*a.*; a third part of a mill; a third part of the fairs in Castelcarlton on the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross . . . . . ; a third part of the perquisites of court; divers parcels of wood (field names given), for a third part of 121½*a.* wood; a third part of the head-money of knaves (chevagium garcionum); and a third part of the rents and works of divers tenants (names given). This assignment was made with the assent of (the attorney) of Gilbert Talbot, who had the wardship of two parts of the lands &c. until the lawful age of the heir of the said George, and of the said Isabel.

180. John Giffard of Brymesfeld.

Writ of certiorari, [. . . . . 2 Edw. III.] (defective and defaced.)

Whereas by certain inquisitions concerning the lands and tenements of the said John in cos. Gloucester, Hereford, Worcester, Salop and Stafford, and in the Marches of Walés adjacent, it was found that he held of King Edward II in chief, and that John, son of Fulk Lestraunge and Eleanor his wife, sister of the said John Giffard, and James, son of Nicholas Daudele, issue of Katherine de Audele another sister of the same John Giffard, are next heirs of the said John Giffard; and that John Lestrange was 21 years old at Christmas then last past, and the said James was 14 years old at Michaelmas then last past; and by certain other inquisitions taken in the said Marches and in cos. Wilts, Southampton, Oxford, Berks, Bedford and Buckingham, it was found that one Elias Giffard lawfully begat John Giffard of Brymesfeld, Maud, Isabel, and Mabel, and that the same John Giffard, after the death of the said Elias his father, took to wife Maud de Longespeye, of whom he begat Katherine de Audeleye, afterwards married to Nicholas de Audeleye, who of her begat Nicholas de Audeleye; and that the same Nicholas begat the said James, who is under age and in the king's wardship; and that the same John Giffard of his said wife begat Eleanor Lestraunge, afterwards married to Fulk Lestraunge, who of her begat the said John Lestraunge; and that on the death of the aforesaid Maud Longespeye the said John Giffard, son of Elias, took to wife Margaret de Nevill, of whom he begat the aforesaid John Giffard of Brymesfeld, who last died; and that the said Maud, daughter of the said Elias, was married to Godfrey Escudemor, who of her begat Peter Escudemor; and that the same Peter begat Alesia de Bavent, afterwards married to Adam de Bavent, who of her begat Roger de Bavent, who is 40 years old; and that the said Isabel, second daughter of the said Elias, was married to Thomas le Tabler, who of her begat Guy le Tabler; and that the said Guy begat Edith de Grymstede, afterwards married to Richard de Grymstede, who of her begat Thomas de Grymstede, who is 25 years old; and that Mabel, the third daughter of Elias, was married to Richard Dansy, who of her begat Richard Dansy, who again begat Richard Dansy, who is 40 years old. Because of the difficulties of the business (and because) John de Kaylwe has asserted that he is next heir of the said John Giffard, the escheator is to make further enquiry.

Wilts. Inq. 20 March, 2 Edward III. (defective.)

John Cailwey is kinsman and next heir of [John], son of John Giffard of Brymesfeld who last died, and of the full blood, for Roger de Bavente, Thomas de Grymstede, Richard Dansy, J[ames] Daudele and John son of Fulk Lestraunge, are of the half blood of the aforesaid John son of John Giffard, because Maud, great-grandmother of the aforesaid Roger de B[avente], Isabel, great-grandmother of the aforesaid Thomas de Grymstede, and Mabel, grandmother of the said Richard Dansy, were sisters of John Giffard, son of Elias Giffard, father of John Giffard of Brymesfeld, who last died, begotten of Isabel Musard, the first wife of Elias Giffard, grandfather of the aforesaid John son of John Giffard. And John Giffard, father of the said John, was son and heir of the said Elias Giffard, begotten of Alice Mautravers, his second wife. Also Katherine Daudele, [mother] of James Daudele, and Eleanor Lestraunge, mother of John son of Fulk Lestraunge, were sisters of John son of John Giffard, begotten of [Maud de] Lungespeye, the first wife of John son of Elias Giffard. And John Giffard of Brymesfeld, who last died without heir of himself, [was son and] heir of the said John son of Elias Giffard, begotten of Margaret de Nevyle, his second wife, who survives. The jurors also say that the aforesaid Elias had a sister on his father's and mother's side, named Berta, great-grandmother of the said John Cailwey, who was married to E . . . [Cail]wey, who of her begat Elias Cailwey, which Elias begat John Cailwey, which John begat [John] Cailwey, who now is. The aforesaid John son of John Giffard has no other heir of . . . . . [Cai]lwey. And the aforesaid John Cailwey is 40 years old and more.

GLOUCESTER. Inq. 20 March, 2 Edward III. (defective.)

John de Kaylewe is kinsman and next heir of John Giffard, son of John Giffard of Brymesfeld, who last died, because a certain E[lias] . . . of the aforesaid John son of John, married a certain wife named Maud, of whom he begat a son named Elias and a daughter named B[erta] . . . . . son of Elias married a certain wife named Isabel, of whom he begat Isabel, great-grandmother of Thomas de Grymstude, Maud, great-grandmother of R[oger de Bavente, and] Mabel, grandmother of Richard Dansy; which Isabel, wife of the aforesaid Elias died; after whose death, the aforesaid Elias son of Elias married . . . . . , of whom he begat John, father of the aforesaid John Giffard, who last died; which John son of Elias married . . . . . , of whom he begat Eleanor, mother of John Lestrange, and Katherine, grandmother of James Daudelee; which Maud died . . . . . John son of Elias married a certain wife named Margaret, of whom he begat the aforesaid John son of John Giffard, [who] last died. And the jurors say that Elias de Kaylewe, great-grandfather of the aforesaid John de Kaylewe, married the aforesaid Ber[ta] . . . . . Elias de Kaylewe; which Elias begat John de Kaylewe; who begat . . . . . ; and so the jurors say that he is kinsman and next heir of John Giffard, son of John Giffard of Br[ymesfeld].

Writ to the justices for pleas, 4 April, [2] Edward III. (defective.)

Whereas by certain inquisitions concerning the lands and tenements of the said John, which he held of King Edward II in chief, it was found that John, son of Fulk Lestrange and Eleanor his wife, sister of the aforesaid John Giffard, and James son of Nicholas Daudele, issue of Katherine Daudele, another sister of the same John Giffard, are next heirs of the said John Giffard; and it was found by other inquisitions that Roger Bavent, Thomas de Grymstede, and Richard Dansy, by divers other degrees of consanguinity, are heirs of the said John Giffard; which inquisitions, owing to the difficulties and varieties arising therefrom, the king sent to them and the business as yet hangs undecided; and now by inquisitions, made on the suit (ad prosecucionem) of John de Caylewe, it has been found that the said John is next heir of the said John Giffard and is of full age, and he has prayed for livery to be made to him; the said justices are to view the said inquisitions and to report what ought to be done.

253. Giles, son and heir of John Mares.

Northampton. Proof of age, 20 September, 3 Edward III.

Henry de Willeby aged 52 years, says that the said Giles was 21 years of age on the eve of St. Nicholas last, which he knows because the said Giles was born at Northasshebi on the said eve, 1 Edward II, in the hall of the mansion of the aforesaid John his father at the hour of vespers, and baptized in the church of All Saints of the same town on the day of St. Nicholas next following, and further the said John, father of the said Giles, sent after him (misit post ipsum) to speak and to eat with him at Northasshebi on the said day of St. Nicholas, and he was in the said church and saw the said Giles baptized.

Robert de Catteworth of Northasshebi, aged 40 years, agrees, and knows it because Alice his mother died at the feast of the Epiphany in the year in which the said Giles was born.

Geoffrey le Clerk of Asshebi, aged 60 years, says the like, and knows it because in the same year as the said Giles was born he married Emma his wife in the said church, and is dwelling in the said town of Northasshebi.

Robert le Frensh, aged 50 years, agrees, and knows it because in the same year that the said Giles was born he lifted him in the said church to Sir John, late bishop of Lincoln, for confirmation.

Nicholas le Clerk of Northasshebi, aged 40 years, says the like, and knows it because Robert le Frensh married Joan his mother in the said town the day and year in which the said Giles was born, and at that time he often went to the house of the said John, and saw the said Giles lying in his mother's lap.

William Abovetheweye, aged 44 years, agrees, and knows it because on the said day of St. Nicholas, on which the said Giles was born, he acquired a yearly rent of 8*s*. from William Archer in the said town, and at the hour when the said Giles was baptized he was present in the same place and the said William Larcher sealed a charter of feoffment of the said yearly rent.

Robert Motte, aged 50 years, says the like, and knows it because he begat a son of his wife, who was baptized in the said church on the same day as the said Giles was born, which son still survives dwelling in the said town of Northasshebi.

John Wolman, aged 46 years, agrees, and knows it because in the same year as the said Giles was born he took from the abbot of Aunay (de Alneto) a virgate of land to farm to the end of a term of 25 years not yet past, at a yearly rent of 12*s*. by a writing indented.

William Aunsel, aged 50 years, says as Robert Motte, and knows it because Denis sometime abbot of Aunay in Normandy, who had the church of Northasshebi in frankalmoin, died in the same year as the said Giles was born, and the day of his death is inscribed in a register of the said church.

Robert Abovetheweye, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because when the said Giles was baptized he stood there in the church and heard his mass, and heard a predicant friar preach the same day in the said church, and saw the said Giles at the church door to be baptized.

William le Chapman, aged 50 years and more, says as the abovesaid Henry, and knows it because in the year in which the said Giles was born he was serving the said John, father of the said Giles, in Northasshebi, and saw the said Giles in his nurse's hand.

Nicholas Faber, of Nortasshebi, aged 53 years, agrees, and knows it because on the said eve of St. Nicholas when the said Giles was born, Maud, his own mother, was with the said Isabel, mother of the said Giles, when she was in labour with him, and after the hour of vespers the same day, when she was delivered, the same Maud came to her own house and told the said Nicholas her son and others there present, that the said Isabel was that day delivered of a male child.

Isabel de Mares to whom the wardship was committed by the late King Edward II, had nothing to say why his lands ought not to be delivered to the said Giles as of full age.

SUFFOLK. Return (undated).

In the book of Domesday under the title of 'Lands of Robert count of Mortain in Suffolk' it is thus found:—

Stou h(undred). Cambas, held by Ulnoth a freeman under King Edward &c.

In a book extracted from divers inquisitions taken 'ex officio' in the time of King Henry, the king's great-grandfather, in Norfolk and Suffolk, under the title of socage, it is thus found:—

Cambes, held by Robert de Crek of the king at fee farm, rendering the farm at the exchequer, and he used to hold of Rodland Avenel by 22*l.* half a mark, and 25*s.* scutage, and nothing has been alienated.

Also in the same book under the title of escheats, thus:—

Cambes. 22*l.* half a mark from the manor, is the king's escheat from Ralph Avenel the Norman, of whom Bartholomew de Crek held the manor by that service.*

In the great roll of 10 John, in Norfolk, thus:—

Camb'. Robert de Crek renders account of 22*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* for this year, and 7*l.* 10*s.* for yearly scutage for 5 years past, and 30*s.* for this year.

From 12 John to 4 Henry III, the said 22*l.* half a mark, and 30*s.* yearly scutage, are exacted under the name of Robert de Creke; from 5 Henry III to 13 Edward I, under that of Bartholomew de Creke; from 14 to 16 Edward I, under that of John son and heir of the said Bartholomew; from 17 Edward I, to 1 Edward II, under the names of Roger son of Peter and Sarra his wife; from 2 to 14 Edward II, one moiety of the said sums is required from John de Thorpe, kinsman and heir of Margaret, one of the paternal aunts and heirs of the said Sarra, and the other moiety from Edmund de Pagenham and Rose his wife, one of the kinswomen and heirs of Isabel, another of the paternal aunts and heirs of the said Sarra; from 15 Edward II, to the present time, one moiety of the said sums is exacted from the said John de Thorpe, kinsman and heir of the said Margaret, one of the heirs of the said Sarra, who is heir of John de Creke and late the wife of the said

* Testa de Nevill, pp. 283, 294, 300.

At which day he came and asserted that he held the said rent for his life, of the grant of the above earl of Pembroke; and for fuller information the treasurer and barons of the exchequer were commanded to certify into the chancery if the said rent was answered for to the king after the said earl's death, and a day was given (by postponement) until the octave of St. Hilary next.

On which day the said Henry came and asserted that he held the said tenements by right of inheritance as well in the time of the said Aymer as after his death; and for fuller information the treasurer and barons of the exchequer were commanded to certify into the king's chancery whether the king has been answered to concerning the issues of the said tenements after the said Aymer's death, and a day was given (by postponement) until the octave of St. Hilary next.

William de Tyllebury, her uncle, aged 31 years and more, is her next heir.

Writ of certiorari, 3 February, 7 Edward III. To the Treasurer and chamberlains to search the Feet of Fines in the king's treasury and send a transcript of the Foot of a Fine levied in 14 Edward II, between Joan late the wife of John de Tillebury and Master Richard Abel, concerning the manors of Westtillebury and Westnewelond and the advowsons of the church and chapel of Westtillebury.

Essex. Transcript of a Foot of Fine, made on the quinzaine of St. John the Baptist, 14 Edward II.

Between Joan late the wife of John de Tillebury, and Master Richard Abel, of the abovesaid manors and advowsons, whereby the said Richard granted the said manor of Westtillebury and advowsons to the said Joan to hold of the king for her life; and also granted to her the reversion for her life of the said manor of Westnewelonde, which Robert de Gyngges and Joan his wife held as the said Joan's dower of the said Master Richard's inheritance; and after the said Joan's death the said manors and advowsons shall remain to Idonia, daughter of the said John and Joan, and the heirs of her body, and in default of such heirs to the right heirs of the same John. For which grant and agreement the same Joan gave to the said Master Richard 200*l.* sterling, and this agreement as concerns the said manor of Westillebury and the said advowsons was made by the king's command, the said Robert and Joan his wife being present and agreeing to it, and they did fealty to the said Joan late the wife of the said John in the same court.

Memorandum. Whereas it has been found by inquisition that the above mentioned Idonia held on the day she died the manor of Westillebury, with the advowsons of the church and chapel there, of the king, as of the honour of Reyleye by knight's service, and that William de Tillebury, her uncle, was her next heir, and the same William sought that the premises should be delivered to him as such next heir; the escheator was commanded to warn William Vaghan and Joan his wife, who claimed a right in the premises, to be before the king in his chancery, on the quinzaine of Easter in the 7th year of his reign, to show cause why the premises should not be so delivered; at which day the said William Vaghan and Joan came by their attorney and showed, although the said writ was not returned at that day, a transcript of a fine levied in the king's court in 14 Edward II, sent into the king's chancery under the seal of the exchequer and fastened hereto, by which it was found that Master Richard Abel granted the said manor and advowsons to the said Joan, for her life, and also (showed) letters patent of the king's father by which the said king granted licence for this, and the said William Vaghan and Joan asserted that they had quietly held the premises from the time of the levying of the said fine, and before the death of the said Idonia, by virtue of that fine, and still hold them, and pray that they may not be removed from the possession of the same; and because the said William de Tyllebury did not come at the aforesaid day, nor was anything said or shown on behalf of his right in this matter, &c., it was considered that the said William Vaghan and Joan may depart without a day, &c.

The said manor was at one time in the seisin of Henry de Pynkenye, knight, who enfeoffed Hugh le Despensere, the elder, of the same to hold to him and his heirs. Afterwards the said Edmund claimed right in the same, and, when the said Hugh was exiled from the kingdom, intruded upon the same; and afterwards the said Hugh returned by the king's licence and re-entered the same. Afterwards the said Edmund acknowledged that he had wrongfully entered the same, and surrendered himself to the said Hugh's will for the transgression; whereupon the said Hugh and Edmund were reconciled, and the said Edmund voluntarily released all his right in the said manor. And by consent of the parties the same Edmund brought a writ of mort d'ancestor against the said Hugh, claiming the said manor, so that by process continued and judgment therein rendered the same Edmund released all his right in the same to the said Hugh in fee, who continued that estate quietly until his forfeiture to the king. Afterwards, in the time intervening between the said Hugh's seisin and the king's seisin, the said Edmund intruded himself upon the said manor; and afterwards the king seized the same into his hand by the said Hugh's forfeiture, and granted it to the said Edmund for life, who had therefore no other estate therein except the king's demise.

That manor, and Foulmere, are held by one and the same service of the king, viz.—by service of a knight's fee, and finding two armed footmen in time of war in the castle of Windsor for 40 days, for which ward the king has yearly at the said castle 20*s.* from the same manors; and he rendered 7*s.* 6*d.* for suit and hidage to the king, by the hands of the sheriff, for lands and tenements which were wont to be held of the said manor of Dachete.

Essex. Proof of age, 11 August, 8 Edward III.

635. Henry son of Ralph de Camme.

Writ of certiorari to the escheator in cos. Hereford, Gloucester, &c., 20 May, 8 Edward III.

Whereas to a writ of certiorari super causa captionis touching 8*a.* meadow of Henry de Camme in Duresleye, return was made that Henry de Berkeleye, who held the manor of Duresle of King Edward II, in chief, gave the said 8*a.* to Ralph de Camme and Henry his son, to hold for the life of either of them, the said king's licence not having been obtained, and for that reason that meadow was taken into the hand of King Edward II, and still is in the king's hand, and John de Berkeye (sic) of Duresleye, kinsman and heir of the said Henry, has prayed the king that, whereas as well the said Henry de Berkeleye as the said Ralph [de Camme] and Henry his son, have died, whereby that meadow should revert to the said John by hereditary right, the king would cause the same to be delivered to him; the escheator is commanded to make enquiry concerning the premises.

[Gloucester.] Inq. 5 July, 8 Edward III.

Durseleye. Henry de Berkleye held the manor to him and his heirs of King Edward II, in chief, by service of a knight's fee; and gave to Ralph de Camme and Henry his son, for the life of either of them, the aforesaid 8*a.* meadow, as parcel of the said manor, without the said king's licence; and so the escheator took the said 8*a.* into the said king's hand ten years ago, and they are still in the king's hand. The said Henry, Ralph, and Henry are dead, and the said John de Berkeleye, aged 40 years, is next heir of the said Henry de Berkleye, who never demised or quit-claimed the said 8*a.* meadow to the said Ralph or Henry.

636. Robert Bavent or de Bavent.

Petition (undated) to the king and council, by Katherine de Bavent, showing that the king lately granted his letters under the privy seal (la targe) to the chancellor, to enquire into the right she claimed to 10 marks rent from the manors of Billesbi and Marum, co. Lincoln, for her life, by the gift of Robert Bavent, her late father, which manors are held of the king in chief; whereupon, by writ of chancery, the escheator was ordered to take an inquisition, and it was returned into the chancery, and thence to the keeper of the privy seal; by which inquisition it was found that she had the right, but the matter remained in the Wardrobe unexecuted; wherefore she prays the king and council to order that she may be served with her rent. (French.)

Endorsed:—Let the inquisition come back into the chancery, and be there viewed, and let right be done.

Writ of certiorari, 5 May, 8 Edward III, on the complaint of Katherine, daughter of Robert Bavent who held of the king in chief, showing that the said Robert, long before his death, gave her 10 marks rent as abovesaid, and that she was seised of the same from the time of the said gift until the said Robert's death, but they have been detained from her from the time when the said manors were taken into the king's hand through the death of the said Robert and the minority of Peter, his son and heir, and are still detained from her, and praying the king to order that the arrears of the said 10 marks may be paid to her, and that she may receive the said sum yearly from the issues of the said manors, whilst they remain in the king's hand.

LINCOLN. Inq. 27 May, 8 Edward III.

Billesby and Marum. Robert Bavent, whilst of good and sound memory, gave by his writing, sealed with his own seal, to Katherine his daughter, 10 marks of yearly rent, in aid of her advancement and marriage, to be received from the above manors, and she was seised of the same in the lifetime of the said Robert, from Saturday next before St. Gregory the Pope, 13 Edward II, until the feast of St. Martin in the Winter then next following, when he died. And the said Robert delivered the wardship of the body and goods of the said Katherine to Vincent Bavent, her uncle, on account of her tender age, who distrained in the lifetime of the said Robert on the said manors, until the said Katherine was fully satisfied for the said 10 marks for one year. The said 10 marks have been detained from her from the said feast of St. Martin, 14 Edward II, and the said manors were taken into the hand of King Edward II, through the death of the said Robert and the minority of Peter, his son and heir; and they are still detained, because a certain Eudo de Byllesby, who obtained in wardship the writing aforesaid would not restore it to the said Katherine, until, by judgement before the king's justices of the bench, at Westminster, 7 Edward III, she recovered it; and likewise because, the said manors being in the king's hand, she did not dare to distrain on them for the said 10 marks, on account of reverence and the king's prerogative. By reason of the minority aforesaid, the said manors are at present in the king's hand, and are held of the king in chief, by serjeanty of keeping and carrying the king's falcons.

Letter from [the escheator] to the king, dated at York, 31 May [8 Edward III].

Whereas the king by his letters under the privy seal, sometime commanded the archbishop of Canterbury, his chancellor, to command the escheator for the county of Lincoln to make inquisition if Robert Bavent, who held of the king in chief, gave to Katherine his daughter, a yearly rent of 10 marks, to be received for her life from the manors of Billesby and Marum, co. Lincoln, which are now in the king's hand by reason of the minority of the said Robert's heir; and if the said Katherine was seised of the said rent, and any other points comprised in the said letters; so that the said inquisition being taken and returned into chancery, the chancellor might cause it to come quickly before the king, that he might give commandment thereon; he sends the said inquisition, thus taken by writ under the great seal, together with the said writ, to the king under his own seal.

Memorandum of partition of the abovesaid lands into two parts and a third part (undated).

Assignment of dower of Elizabeth, sometime the wife of William le Latimer, made in the king's chancery, 10 February, 10 Edward III, of the lands and tenements which were of the said William, and are in the wardship of Philippa, queen of England, with the assent of the said queen, by Hugh de Glaunville and Hasculph de Whitewell, appointed by the said queen for that purpose. With a note at the end:—"Vacated, because another assignment was made, with the assent, as well of the aforesaid Hugh and Hasculph, as of the said Elizabeth, as appears from a certain schedule sewn hereto."

Petition to the king and council by Thomas, son and heir of William Latymer, shewing that he was seised of the manor of Wodenton, by his father's gift, and was afterwards ejected through an inquisition returned into the chancery by Walter de Hungerford, escheator, by virtue whereof the queen entered upon the manor; whereupon the said Thomas sued his petition, and there was granted him a writ to William Trussel, escheator, to enquire concerning the said Thomas's right, and it was found that his father gave him the said manor, and that he was in peaceable possession thereof, until the queen ejected him; which inquisition was returned into the chancery, and Writ of certiorari, 23 March, 10 Edward III.

Whereas by an inquisition made by Walter de Hungerford, late escheator, and returned into the chancery, it was found that William Latymer on the day he died, held the manor of Wodeton, co. Surrey, of the king in chief, by service of a knight's fee, and that William his son, aged 6 years, was his next heir; but Thomas Latymer, by his petition exhibited to the king and council in the present parliament, gave it to be understood that, for a long time before the death of the said William Latymer, he held the said manor to him and his heirs, by the gift of William Latymer, father of the said Thomas and William, and had continued his seisin peaceably, until the said manor, by colour of the inquisition aforesaid, was taken into the king's hand, and that neither the said William who last died, nor the said William, father of the said William and Thomas, had ever, after the said manor was so given to the said Thomas, had any other estate therein, than as guardians of the said Thomas, who was then of tender age. The escheator is to enquire whether William Latymer, father of the said William and Thomas, gave the said manor to the said Thomas, or not, &c., in the presence of the steward, or any other of the ministers, of Philippa, queen of England, the king's consort, to whom the wardship of the lands and tenements which were of the same William was committed until the lawful age of the said heir. By pet. of c.

Endorsed:—Memorandum that a day was given to the said Thomas, with respect to the contents of this writ, at York, on the morrow of All Souls next.

SURREY. Inq. Saturday after the octave of Easter, 10 Edward III.

William le Latymer, father of William le Latymer who last died, and of Thomas le Latymer, gave to the same Thomas, in the 18th year of King Edward II, the manor of Wodeton, to hold to him and his heirs for ever; and the said Thomas was seised thereof, and continued his seisin, until the manor was taken into the king's hand by Walter de Hungerford, late escheator. Neither the said William, the father of William and Thomas, nor the same William who last died, had any estate in the manor after that gift, other than as guardians of the said Thomas; and the said Thomas never changed his estate therein. The manor was taken into the king's hand through the death of William le Latymer who last died, and for no other cause.

John de Hegham, steward of Philippa queen of England, was warned to be present at the taking of the inquisition; but came not, nor sent anyone on his behalf.

CALENDARS OF STATE PAPERS, &c.

[IMPERIAL 8vo., cloth. Price 15*s*. each Volume or Part, except where otherwise stated.]

Subsequent to recommendations of Committees of the House of Commons in 1800 and 1836, the Master of the Rolls, in 1865, stated to the Lords of the Treasury that although "the Records, State Papers, "and Documents in his charge constitute the most complete and "perfect series of their kind in the civilized world," and although "they are of the greatest value in a historical and constitutional point "of view, yet they are comparatively useless to the public from the "want of proper Calendars and Indexes." Whereupon their Lordships assented to the necessity of having Calendars prepared, and empowered the Master of the Rolls to take such steps as might be necessary for this purpose.

THE CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND DURING THE MIDDLE AGES.

ROYAL 8vo. Price 10*s.* each Volume or Part.

1. THE CHRONICLE OF ENGLAND, by JOHN CAPGRAVE. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

Capgrave's Chronicle extends from the Creation of the World to the year 1417. Being written in English, it is of value as a record of the language spoken in Norfolk.

2. CHRONICON MONASTERII DE ABINGDON. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEPHENSON, M.A., Vicar of Leighton Buzzard. 1858.

This Chronicle traces the history of the monastery from its foundation by King Ina of Wessex, to the reign of Richard I. The author incorporates into his history various charters of the Saxon kings, as illustrating not only the history of the locality but that of the kingdom.

3. LIVES OF EDWARD THE CONFESSOR. I.—La Estoire de Seint Aedward le Rei. II.—Vita Beati Edvardi Regis et Confessoris. III.—Vita Æduuardi Regis qui apud Westmonasterium requiescit. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1858.

The first is a poem in French, probably written in 1245. The second is an anonymous poem, written between 1440 and 1450, which is mainly valuable as a specimen of the Latin poetry of the time. The third, also by an anonymous author, was apparently written between 1066 and 1074.

Vol. I.—Thomas de Eccleston de Adventu Fratrum Minorum in Angliam. Adæ de Marisco Epistolæ. Registrum Fratrum Minorum Londoniæ. Edited by J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London.

Vol. II.—De Adventu Minorum; re-edited with additions. Chronicle of the Grey Friars. The ancient English version of the Rule of St. Francis. Abbreviatio Statutorum, 1451, &c. Edited by RICHARD HOWLETT, Barrister-at-Law. 1858, 1882.

5. FASCICULI ZIZANIORUM MAGISTRI JOHANNIS WYCLIF CUM TRITICO. Ascribed to THOMAS NETTER, of WALDEN, Provincial of the Carmelite Order in England, and Confessor to King Henry the Fifth. Edited by the Rev. W. W. SHIRLEY, M.A., Tutor and late Fellow of Wadham College, Oxford. 1858.

This work gives the only contemporaneous account of the rise of the Lollards.

6. THE BUIK OF THE CRONICLIS OF SCOTLAND; or, a Metrical Version of the History of Hector Boece; by WILLIAM STEWART. Vols. I.-III. Edited by W. B. TURNBULL, Barrister-at-Law. 1858.

This is a metrical translation of a Latin Prose Chronicle, written in the first half of the 16th century. The narrative begins with the earliest legends and ends with the death of James I. of Scotland, and the "evil ending of the traitors that slew him." The peculiarities of the Scottish dialect are well illustrated in this version.

7. JOHANNIS CAPGRAVE LIBER DE ILLUSTRIBUS HENRICIS. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

The first part relates only to the history of the Empire from the election of Henry I. the Fowler, to the end of the reign of the Emperor Henry VI. The second part is devoted to English history, from the accession of Henry I. in 1100, to 1446, which was the twenty-fourth year of the reign of Henry VI. The third part contains the lives of illustrious men who have borne the name of Henry in various parts of the world.

8. HISTORIA MONASTERII S. AUGUSTINI CANTUARIENSIS, by THOMAS OF ELMHAM, formerly Monk and Treasurer of that Foundation. Edited by CHARLES HARDWICK, M.A., Fellow of St. Catherine's Hall, and Christian Advocate in the University of Cambridge. 1858.

This history extends from the arrival of St. Augustine in Kent until 1191.

9. EULOGIUM (HISTORIARIUM SIVE TEMPORIS): Chronicon ab Orbe condito usque ad Annum Domini 1366; a monacho quodam Malmesbiriensi exaratum. Vols. I.–III. Edited by F. S. HAYDON, B.A. 1858–1863.

This is a Latin Chronicle extending from the Creation to the latter part of the reign of Edward III., with a continuation to the year 1413.

10. MEMORIALS OF HENRY THE SEVENTH; Bernardi Andreæ Tholosatis Vita Regis Henrici Septimi; necnon alia quædam ad eundem Regem Spectantia. Edited by JAMES GAIRDNER. 1858.

The contents of this volume are—(1) a life of Henry VII., by his poet Laureate and historiographer, Bernard André, of Toulouse, with some compositions in verse, of which he is supposed to have been the author; (2) the journals of Roger Machado during certain embassies to Spain and Brittany, the first of which had reference to the marriage of the King's son, Arthur, with Catharine of Arragon; (3) two curious reports by envoys sent to Spain in 1505 touching the succession to the Crown of Castile, and a project of marriage between Henry VII. and the Queen of Naples; and (4) an account of Philip of Castile's reception in England in 1506. Other documents of interest are given in an appendix.

11. MEMORIALS OF HENRY THE FIFTH. I.—Vita Henrici Quinti, Roberto Redmanno auctore. II.—Versus Rhythmici in laudem Regis Henrici Quinti. III.—Elmhami Liber Metricus de Henrico V. Edited by CHARLES A. COLE. 1858.

12. MUNIMENTA GILDHALLÆ LONDONIENSIS; Liber Albus, Liber Custumarum, et Liber Horn, in archivis Gildhallæ asservati.

Vol. III., Translation of the Anglo-Norman Passages in Liber Albus, Glossaries, Appendices, and Index.

Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1859–1862.

The Liber Albus, compiled by John Carpenter, Common Clerk of the City of London in the year 1419, gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of that City in the 12th, 13th, 14th, and early part of the 15th centuries. The Liber Custumarum was compiled in the early part of the 14th century during the reign of Edward II. It also gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of the City of London in the 12th, 13th, and early part of the 14th centuries.

13. CHRONICA JOHANNIS DE OXENEDES. Edited by SIR HENRY ELLIS, K.H. 1859.

Although this Chronicle tells of the arrival of Hengist and Horsa, it substantially begins with the reign of King Alfred, and comes down to 1292. It is particularly valuable for notices of events in the eastern portions of the kingdom.

14. A COLLECTION OF POLITICAL POEMS AND SONGS RELATING TO ENGLISH HISTORY, FROM THE ACCESSION OF EDWARD III. TO THE REIGN OF HENRY VIII. Vols. I. and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1859–1861.

20. Annales Cambriæ. Edited by the Rev. John Williams ab Ithel, M.A. 1860.

These annals, which are in Latin, commence in 447 and come down to 1288. The earlier portion appears to be taken from an Irish Chronicle used by Tigernach, and by the compiler of the Annals of Ulster.

There are at present six independent manuscripts of the Saxon Chronicle, ending in different years, and written in different parts of the country. Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1863–1876.

In the first two volumes is a History of England, from the death of Henry III. to the death of Henry V., by Thomas Walsingham, Precentor of St. Albans.

In the 3rd volume is a Chronicle of English History, attributed to William Rishanger, who lived in the reign of Edward I.: an account of transactions attending the award of the kingdom of Scotland to John Balliol, 1291-1292, also attributed to William Rishanger, but on no sufficient ground: a short Chronicle of English History, 1292 to 1300, by an unknown hand a short Chronicle, Willelmi Rishanger Gesta Edwardi Primi, Regis Angliæ, probably by the same hand: and fragments of three Chronicles of English History, 1285 to 1307.

In the 4th volume is a Chronicle of English History, 1259 to 1296: Annals of Edward II., 1307 to 1323, by John de Trokelowe, a monk of St. Albans, and a continuation of Trokelowe's Annals, 1323, 1324, by Henry de Blaneforde: a full Chronicle of English History, 1392 to 1406, and an account of the benefactors of St. Albans, written in the early part of the 15th century.

The 5th, 6th, and 7th volumes contain a history of the Abbots of St. Albans, 793 to 1411, mainly compiled by Thomas Walsingham, with a Continuation.

The 8th and 9th volumes, in continuation of the Annals, contain a Chronicle probably of John Amundesham, a monk of St. Albans.

The 10th and 11th volumes relate especially to the acts and proceedings of Abbots Wethamstede, Albon, and Wallingford.

The 12th volume contains a compendious History of England to the reign of Henry V. and of Normandy in early times also by Thomas Walsingham, and dedicated to Henry V.

29. CHRONICON ABBATIÆ DE EVESHAM, AUCTORIBUS DOMINICO PRIORE EVESHAMIÆ ET THOMA DE MARLEBERGE ABBATE, A FUNDATIONE AD ANNUM 1213, UNA CUM CONTINUATIONE AD ANNUM 1418. Edited by the Rev. W. D. MACRAY, Bodleian Library, Oxford. 1863.

The Chronicle of Evesham illustrates the history of that important monastery from 690 to 1418. Its chief feature is an autobiography, which makes us acquainted with the inner daily life of a great abbey. Interspersed are many notices of general, personal, and local history.

30. RICARDI DE CIRENCESTRIA SPECULUM HISTORIALE DE GESTIS REGUM ANGLIÆ. Vol. I., 447–871. Vol. II., 872–1066. Edited by JOHN E. B. MAYOR, M.A., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1863–1869.

Richard of Cirencester's history is in four books, and gives many charters in favour of Westminster Abbey, and a very full account of the lives and miracles of the saints, especially of Edward the Confessor, whose reign occupies the fourth book. A treatise on the Coronation, by William of Sudbury, a monk of Westminster, fills book ii. c. 3.

Vol. I.:—ITINERARIUM PEREGRINORUM ET GESTA REGIS RICARDI.

Vol. II.:—EPISTOLÆ CANTUARIENSES; the Letters of the Prior and Convent of Christ Church, Canterbury; 1187 to 1199.

Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Vicar of Navestock, Essex, and Lambeth Librarian. 1864–1865.

The authorship of the Chronicle in Vol. I., hitherto ascribed to Geoffrey Vinesauf, is now more correctly ascribed to Richard, Canon of the Holy Trinity of London.
The letters in Vol. II., written between 1187 and 1199, had their origin in a dispute which arose from the attempts of Baldwin and Hubert, archbishops of Canterbury, to found a college of secular canons, a project which gave great umbrage to the monks of Canterbury.

39. RECUEIL DES CRONIQUES ET ANCHIENNES ISTORIES DE LA GRANT BRETAIGNE A PRESENT NOMME ENGLETERRE, par JEHAN DE WAURIN. Vol. I., Albina to 688. Vol. II., 1399–1422. 40. A COLLECTION OF THE CHRONICLES AND ANCIENT HISTORIES OF GREAT BRITAIN, NOW CALLED ENGLAND, by JOHN DE WAURIN. Vol. I., Albina to 688. Vol. II., 1399–1422. Vol. III., 1422–1431. (Translations of the preceding Vols. I., II., and III. Edited and translated by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1864–1891.

41. POLYCHRONICON RANULPHI HIGDEN, with Trevisa's Translation. Vols. I. and II. Edited by CHURCHILL BABINGTON, B.D., Senior Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. Vols. JOSEPH RAWSON LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity, Vicar of St. Edward's, Fellow of St. Catharine's College, and late Fellow of Magdalene College, Cambridge. 1865–1886.

This chronicle begins with the Creation, and is brought down to the reign of Edward III. The two English translations, which are printed with the original Latin, afford interesting illustrations of the gradual change of our language, for one was made in the fourteenth century, the other in the fifteenth.

These two treatises are valuable as careful abstracts of previous histories.

43. CHRONICA MONASTERII DE MELSA AB ANNO 1150 USQUE AD ANNUM 1406, Vols. I.–III. Edited by EDWARD AUGUSTUS BOND, Assistant Keeper of Manuscripts, and Egerton Librarian, British Museum. 1866–1868.

45. LIBER MONASTERII DE HYDA: A CHRONICLE AND CHARTULARY OF HYDE ABBEY, WINCHESTER, 455–1023. Edited by EDWARD EDWARDS. 1866.

The "Book of Hyde" is a compilation from much earlier sources, which are usually indicated with considerable care and precision. In many cases, however, the Hyde Chronicler appears to correct, to qualify, or to amplify the statements which, in substance, he adopts.

There is to be found, in the "Book of Hyde," much information relating to the reign of King Alfred which is not known to exist elsewhere. The volume contains some curious specimens of Anglo-Saxon and mediæval English.

46. CHRONICON SCOTORUM. A CHRONICLE OF IRISH AFFAIRS, from the earliest times to 1135; and SUPPLEMENT, containing the events from 1141 to 1150. Edited, with Translation, by WILLIAM MAUNSELL HENNESSY, M.R.I.A. 1866.

47. THE CHRONICLE OF PIERRE DE LANGTOFT IN FRENCH VERSE, FROM THE EARLIEST PERIOD TO THE DEATH OF EDWARD I. Vols. I. and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1866–1868.

It is probable that Pierre de Langtoft was a canon of Bridlington, in Yorkshire and lived in the reign of Edward I., and during a portion of the reign of Edward II. This chronicle is divided into three parts; in the first, is an abridgement of Geoffrey of Monmouth's "Historia Britonum"; in the second, a history of the Anglo-Saxon and Norman kings, to the death of Henry III.; in the third, a history of the reign of Edward I. The language is a specimen of the French of Yorkshire.

50. MUNIMENTA ACADEMICA, OR DOCUMENTS ILLUSTRATIVE OF ACADEMICAL LIFE AND STUDIES AT OXFORD (in Two Parts). Edited by the Rev. HENRY ANSTEY, M.A., Vicar of St. Wendron, Cornwall, and late Vice-Principal of St. Mary Hall, Oxford. 1868.

51. CHRONICA MAGISTRI ROGERI DE HOUEDENE. Vols. I.–IV. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1868–1871.

The earlier portion, extending from 732 to 1148, appears to be a copy of a compilation made in Northumbria about 1161, to which Hoveden added little. From 1148 to 1169—a very valuable portion of this work—the matter is derived from another source, to which Hoveden appears to have supplied little. From 1170 to 1192 is the portion which corresponds to some extent with the Chronicle known under the name of Benedict of Peterborough (see No. 49). From 1192 to 1201 may be said to be wholly Hoveden's work.

WORKS PUBLISHED IN PHOTOZINCOGRAPHY.

DOMESDAY BOOK, or the GREAT SURVEY OF ENGLAND OF WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, 1086; fac-simile of the Part relating to each county, separately (with a few exceptions of double counties). Photozincographed at the Ordnance Survey Office, Southampton, by Colonel Sir HENRY JAMES, R.E., F.R.S., DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, under the superintendence of W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. 35 parts, imperial quarto and demy quarto (1861–1863), boards.

Domesday Survey is in two parts or volumes. The first, in folio, contains the counties of Bedford, Berks, Bucks, Cambridge, Chester and Lancaster, Cornwall, Derby, Devon, Dorset, Gloucester, Hants, Hereford, Herts, Huntingdon, Kent, Leicester and Rutland, Lincoln, Middlesex, Northampton, Nottingham, Oxford, Salop, Somerset, Stafford, Surrey, Sussex, Warwick, Wilts, Worcester, and York. The second volume, in quarto, contains the counties of Essex, Norfolk, and Suffolk.

Domesday Book was printed verbatim et literatim during the last century, in consequence of an address of the House of Lords to King George III. in 1767. It was not, however, commenced until 1773, and was completed early in 1783. In 1860, Her Majesty's Government, with the concurrence of the Master of the Rolls, determined to apply the art of photozincography in the production of a fac-simile of Domesday Book.

This work forms a comprehensive Palæographic Series for Ireland. It furnishes characteristic specimens of the documents which have come down from each of the classes which, in past ages, formed principal elements in the population of Ireland, or exercised an influence in her affairs. With these reproductions are combined fac-similes of writings connected with eminent personages or transactions of importance in the annals of the country to the early part of the eighteenth century.

The specimens have been reproduced as nearly as possible in accordance with the originals, in dimensions, colouring, and general appearance. Characteristic examples of styles of writing and caligraphic ornamentation are, as far as practicable, associated with subjects of historic and linguistic interest. Descriptions of the various manuscripts are given by the Editor in the Introduction. The contents of the specimens are fully elucidated and printed in the original languages, opposite to the Fac-similes—line for line—without contractions—thus facilitating reference and aiding effectively those interested in palæographic studies.

In the work are also printed in full, for the first time, many original and important historical documents.

Part I. commences with the earliest Irish MSS. extant.
Part II. From the Twelfth Century to 1299.
Part III. From 1300 to end of reign of Henry VIII.
Part IV.—1. From reign of Edward VI. to that of James I.
In part IV.—2 the work is carried down to the early part of the eighteenth century, with Index to the entire publication.
